Introducing the BR36 Premium Quality Black Rock Grill

The BR Oven Range was developed in 2002, these ovens are handmade using only the most durable and hi grade steel and fabrication processes. This ensures that the BR Range is the most hardwearing and heavy duty, in the market place. The BR Range have the most superior high temperature insulation material available making them economical to run. These ovens may cost more than our competitors, but they will also out last our competitors.
